eight persons were killed.

Rivers Love Captured.

Rivers Love, the noted black crook who was serving a life sentence in the State prison for burning a building at the Tallahassee shops of the F. R. & N. Company, escaped on the 27th of last June, and it was thought that he had left the State. Two weeks ago the store of Mr. Loeb, at Monticello, was broken into and a lot of goods stolen. Sheriff Simpkins took the case in charge and succeeded last week in capturing the guilty parties, who proved to be Rivers Love and his two brothers, Enoch and Sherd. The two latter have been remanded to jail to await trial and Rivers has been taken back to the turpentine farm and delivered to the State prison authorities.—Floridian.
