

« BACK TO ORIGINAL SEARCH RESULTS

Image 3 of The morning news (Savannah, Ga.), October 29, 1889

Image provided by: Digital Library of Georgia, a project of GALILEO located at the University of Georgia Libraries

Link to the full image: <https://www.loc.gov/resource/sn86063034/1889-10-29/ed-1/?dl=page&q=%22rivers+love%22&sp=3>

MADISON MENTION.

A Murder Trial—A Burglar Caught in a Store.

MADISON, FLA., Oct. 28.—The circuit court, which adjourned Saturday, was at work on the Braswell murder case all the week. The jury retired at 10 o'clock Friday night to make up their verdict, but did not come to any decision until Saturday morning. T. M. Braswell of this county was murdered last spring in a most cruel and shocking manner, and robbed of about $900. For a long time no clew to who committed the deed could be found, but a few weeks ago evidence sufficient was obtained which led to the arrest of two negroes, Rivers Love and Frank Brooks, and their trial was concluded last night. The verdict of the jury was that Love was guilty of murder in the first degree, Brooks of murder in the second degree. Judge White sentenced Love to be hanged, and Brooks to the penitentiary for life. Alexis M. Michelson of Madison was attorney for Love, and Hon. R. H. Long of Tallahassee defended Brooks.