—Mr. John Braswell, aged 67 years, and long a respected citizen of Madison county, was brutally murdered in his home, at night, a few weeks ago. The murderer or murderers secured $900. It is thought by some that the notorious Rivers Love was the murderer or was one of the crowd who committed the foul murder and robbery, and we learn that further depredations are feared by persons in that section, if Love was a party to the crime. It is said that the friends of Mr. Braswell offer one-half of the money recovered and $100 for the arrest of the murderer. Governor Fleming has offered a reward of $200. If Madison county will offer $200, the aggregate reward ought to induce some one to make an effort to capture the assassin and robber.
